Plagiarism can be defined as submitting another person's ideas, words, images or data without giving that person credit or proper acknowledgement. Plagiarism, a form of academic dishonesty, is equal to theft of intellectual property (stealing) and is taken very seriously at Lemon Bay High School.

- 1) I, _____, understand that plagiarism is equivalent to theft and fraud.

- 2) I have been educated about the meaning of plagiarism and understand the terms "direct quotation," "paraphrase," "summarize," "source acknowledgment," "attribution," and "Works Cited."

- 3) I know that copying words from print or internet sources without crediting the source constitutes plagiarism.

- 4) I have learned ways to avoid plagiarism by always acknowledging the source of any borrowed passage, sentence, image, or key idea that I use in my own writing. I will put language copied from any source (including electronic sources) into quotation marks and acknowledge the author. If I paraphrase or summarize published language, I will give credit to the author, even if I change the words.
