

*Please Note that Lesson Plans Are Subject to Change*

Weekly Lesson Plans

Teacher: Melissa Slicker

Course: AICE Literature in English

Period(s): 1, 3, 5, 6, 7

Week of: 11/01/2021

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Unit Learning Goal:	Students will review the basics of drama.
Daily Learning Goal(s):	NO SCHOOL	Students will interact and practice with new vocabulary. Students will sort words by Greek or Latin roots.	Students will reflect on plays they have previously studied. Students will consider any opportunities for discussion and practical drama interaction. Students will be aware of the audience in drama work. Students will sort words by Greek or Latin roots.	Students will reflect on plays they have previously studied. Students will consider any opportunities for discussion and practical drama interaction. Students will be aware of the audience in drama work. Students will sort words by Greek or Latin roots.	Students will reflect on plays they have previously studied. Students will consider any opportunities for discussion and practical drama interaction. Students will be aware of the audience in drama work. Students will sort words by Greek or Latin roots.
Activities:		1. SAT Vocabulary #8 2. IXL N.1: Greek and Latin Roots	1. SAT Vocabulary #8 2. Drama Overview Unit 13 Slideshow: Studying A Play	1. SAT Vocabulary #8 2. Types of Plays Matching	1. SAT Vocabulary #8 Quiz 2. Theme Video: The only way you'll ever need to teach theme 3. Finish IXL N.1
Homework:

Standards:		AO1, AO2	AO1, AO2, AO3, AO4	AO1, AO2, AO3, AO4	AO1, AO2