

Please Note that Lesson Plans Are Subject to Change

Weekly Lesson Plans

Teacher: Melissa Slicker

Course: AICE Literature in English

Period(s): 1, 3, 5, 6, 7

Week of: 11/08/2021

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Unit Learning Goal:	Students will study the themes of a play. Students will study play structures.
Daily Learning Goal(s):	Students will interact and practice with new vocabulary. Students will review common themes in drama. Students will engage with examples of these themes. Students will clarify appropriate terminology for discussing drama.	Students will interact and practice with new vocabulary. Students will review common themes in drama. Students will engage with examples of these themes. Students will clarify appropriate terminology for discussing drama.	Students will interact and practice with new vocabulary. Students will review common themes in drama. Students will engage with examples of these themes. Students will clarify appropriate terminology for discussing drama.	Students will interact and practice with new vocabulary. Students will define linear structure and plot. Students will explore exposition and action. Students will clarify denouement. Students will consider patterning devices.	Students will interact and practice with new vocabulary. Students will define linear structure and plot. Students will explore exposition and action. Students will clarify denouement. Students will consider patterning devices.
Activities:	1. SAT Vocabulary #9 2. Unit 14: Studying the Themes of a Play Slideshow	1. SAT Vocabulary #9 2. Unit 14: Studying the Themes of a Play Slideshow	1. SAT Vocabulary #9 2. Match the Movie with the Shakespeare Play	1. SAT Vocabulary #9 2. Unit 15: Studying Play Structures Slideshow	1. SAT Vocabulary #9 2. Unit 15: Studying Play Structures Slideshow
Homework:
Standards:	AO1, AO2, AO3, AO4	AO1, AO2, AO3, AO4	AO1, AO2	AO1, AO2, AO3, AO4	AO1, AO2, AO3, AO4

--	--	--	--	--	--